

Dark Thoughts I

Sometimes our life seems dark
Sometimes our life glows light
Within the shadows there's a heart
Love do divide the night.

They can take us everything
They can't take this away:
We entered life, the game to win
And now we're out to play.

The cards we got, for us to use
Wisely to play and have some luck
Fate is for us to choose
And we may choose to fuck it up.
